Foreword . . .

The oak tree stood here, old and wise, when this college was but a dream and a hope in the minds of the people who made it. For three decades it has seen men and women come and pattern their lives after its own — deep-rooted and vital, strong and useful. It has watched patiently as youth has brought its talents here to have them strengthened and enlarged by education. It has been witness to working and playing, and to the finding of friendships. Twice it has seen young men go off to war, and twice it has seen them return to prepare themselves to live in a world at peace.

Now it looks down on a campus that is awakening to Spring after the winter months of war. As always it stands to give welcome to all who come, and to bid Godspeed to those who go.

MISS JEANNE LOWRY, Faculty Adviser

Here in the BUCCANEER we hope you will see 1946 at ETSC as you remember it. We have tried to include in these pages some highlights of activities through the year, some of the things that you will want to think of when you look back on this year. It is with great pride in our school and its student body that we present the 1946 BUCCANEER.

Men's Athletics

Director

Men's athletics, after three years of limited activity, have come back this season. Under the very able direction of Coach McMurray, a program of football, basketball, and baseball has been offered. Although our football team did not play a regular schedule, the experience the boys received this year in practice will be helpful in the organization of a team next fall. The ETSC basketball team has been the outstanding one in the upstate area. Winners of the Smoky Mountain Conference Tournament, the BUCCANEERS hold 18 decisive victories in the 21 games played this season. In addition to varsity basketball, several cage teams have been formed in the Men's Intramural Department. With the return of many athletes from the armed forces, the prospects for excellent tennis and baseball teams are good. ETSC also welcomes back two former coaches—Archie McNeail, tennis and Jim Mooney, baseball.

Two new developments—the reorganization of the Smoky Mountain Conference and the proposed building of a new gymnasium on the campus—give ETSC students high expectations in the future for more and better athletics in this college and in all East Tennessee.
